It was my privilege lately to be with Brother Summers in a harvest meeting in the Salem congregation. For great numbers of people this meeting was far ahead of any I have ever attended. In the forenoon Brother Summers preached an excellent sermon which aroused a spirit of thankfulness in the hearts of the people for the innumerable blessings received. The church had left nothing undone to make the meeting a success.

On last Sunday I was with Brother Fox in a similar meeting at Zanesville, Ind. This was a very enjoyable meeting to me since I had preached for them a year or more before taking charge of the work at Milford. The decorations were very pretty. The attendance was large and the interest good. May the Lord bless the good people of the Zanesville church.

Dear Editor:—I know the church through your valuable paper will be glad to hear of the triumphs of the gospel in our church in this great iron city.

The blessed service in our church Lord's day evening will not soon be forgotten. After a grand sermon by Dr. McGregor, from the words, "We are witnesses," Acts 2:32, we listened to the experience of Rev. R. D. Dalzell, a member of the Pittsburg Conference, of the Evangelical Association (German Methodists or Albrights.) Rev. Dalzell is a near relative of Hon. John Dalzell. He was one of the leading ministers of his denomination and belonged to one of the most prominent families of Pittsburg.

In his experience he spoke of how he was led to our church by his little daughter who is now at rest with Jesus. How pleased he was with the sermon, how he recognized in Dr. McGregor a consecrated spirit; how he liked a gospel church—free from tyranny in its government, free from worldliness; a church that takes the gospel for its perfect pattern, for ordinances and government, for faith and practice. At the close Bro. Dalzell and his oldest son, recently converted, knelt in consecration while the pastor led in consecration prayer. All hearts seemed filled and suffused with the holy spirit, after which the Dr. baptized the two, and this means more to follow, as there are a number of persons closely related to the baptized who are prayerfully considering the matter.

I have been for some time much interested in the Brethren Church, and especially in the work of the Bible school. But now as I am a member I am more deeply and directly interested in her affairs, and you will allow me to express my opinion in regard to the pastorate. I believe the Lord sent to us our Dr. McGregor as truly as he sent Paul to Macedonia. We need here just now a much larger meeting house. We also need Brethren Missions established in this city.

It is unfortunate for me that the G. A. R. encampment and the church conference comes in the same month and week. It caused me to decide between the joy of meeting and consorting with comrades (who in days that tried men's souls) we slept under the same blanket, or slept side by side without any blanket, men who wept with us when we wept and who rejoiced with us when joy was ours. The time came when I must decide which was duty, stand up and be counted for service in a church convention where nearly all are strangers, (in the flesh,) or mingle with comrades in our annual parade and festivities. By the blessing of our Father, I have decided to attend the church convention. Hoping to meet you there, I am your brother,

Dr. J. C. KENNEDY.

The work here is moving along nicely, prospects good and we believe some of the hardest battles fought. When we came here some time ago we found a little band of earnest workers without a pastor. We held a meeting, resulting in 18 accessions. Soon we organized a class and started the work in earnest and now we have about 45 members; nearly all, if not all of the members of the old original Auburn class have united with us including our earnest and faithful sister Cormer. Next we thought we needed a church, so we went to work and we have our church up and inclosed and will soon be ready to dedicate it. Brother Calvin Grube is our foremost leader in this work as well as in other things, when Brother Grube is at the head things generally boom.

Our Sunday school is doing good work, Brother Hoffman is our faithful superintendent and teacher and he evidently knows how to teach the word. All in his class of young men but one have accepted the gospel invitation and he is praying for that one. Sister Mollie Grube has a fine class which she has thoroughly instructed for all have made the good confession. All of our teachers are doing good work for the Lord.

Communion was held last Monday night,
